Frank VanderSloot

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER | IDAHO FALLS, IDAHO

Over the years, I have talked to many who say they are surprised at Melaleuca's unprecedented rise in the marketplace. They often ask what the secret is to our success. The answer is simply that we have much better products than the grocery store brands. People want to live healthier, longer, and more vibrant lives. They find Melaleuca products are a great asset in achieving those goals. Melaleuca is quickly becoming the world leader in quality wellness products.

The reason hundreds of thousands of families are choosing Melaleuca products over the grocery store brands is quite simple. Many manufacturers are yielding to the tremendous pressures in today's marketplace to cut prices and therefore cut quality. Wal-Mart and the other national chains control the distribution channels. Even companies like Procter & Gamble are placed under tremendous pressure to cut prices in order to get shelf space in the stores. They are forced to lower their price on the one hand and to maintain profit margins on the other. The only answer for these manufacturers is to cut costs by using cheaper ingredients or diluting their products with cheap fillers such as water. The trend for many manufacturers to dilute products has gotten so bad that recently Wal-Mart announced that regardless of the price pressures they put on manufacturers, Wal-Mart would not carry any laundry products with less than a 2x concentration, which is twice as concentrated as these products were previously. Procter & Gamble responded by finally bringing its products (like Tide®) up to the minimum 2x standard and advertising their "improvement" on national TV. Quite frankly, we are not very impressed. Melaleuca's products have always been more concentrated than Wal-Mart's new "standard." In fact, Melaleuca's MelaPower was at 3x concentration for more than 20 years and it's now concentrated at 6x.

The demand for these superior products makes building a Melaleuca business even more profitable and more rewarding. This brings up another good reason for you to buy Melaleuca products. Because when you purchase Melaleuca products, you are not buying from the wealthy owners of Wal-Mart, Lever Brothers, or Johnson & Johnson. You are actually buying from the family or friend that introduced you to Melaleuca. In other words, instead of buying from the corporate giants, you are buying from "the little guy." In most cases it is from someone you know.

Almost all of our 350 products are significantly superior in effectiveness, quality, and safety to any of our competitors in the marketplace. There are hundreds of very good reasons to choose our products over the grocery store brands. Reducing costs by diluting products with water or other fillers is not the only way that the national brands violate their customers' trust. Compromising quality ingredients to save a buck is also prevalent in many of the grocery store brands. When people are dealing with their health, they don't want to make compromises. And they know that Melaleuca will never compromise on effectiveness or safety. Because of the constant pressures of the mass manufacturers to lower price and quality, the demand for Melaleuca's superior and far more effective products is on the rise.

So thank you for your loyalty to Melaleuca's wellness products! We promise to keep our commitment to always provide the best so you can have a healthier, longer, and more vibrant life.

Superior Nutrition Just Like Nature™

When Melaleuca set out to create a better multivitamin & mineral supplement, we decided to start from the ground up—literally.

The earth provides every mineral the human body needs for optimum health, but eating dirt—or the minerals taken from the dirt—doesn't work.

The mineral forms found in the earth and in traditional multivitamins (gluconates, oxides, sulfates, etc.) dissolve easily in the acidic environment of the stomach, but as they pass into the intestines where absorption takes place, they crystallize (or solidify), making them very difficult, if not impossible, for the human body to absorb.

Melaleuca looked to the ideal source of minerals: fruits and vegetables.

Oligo™—Superior Science for Better Health

Fruits and vegetables absorb raw minerals from the soil, and bind them to organic compounds such as proteins and fiber. It is this bound form of minerals that our bodies are designed to absorb and utilize.

10 Times More Available for Absorption†

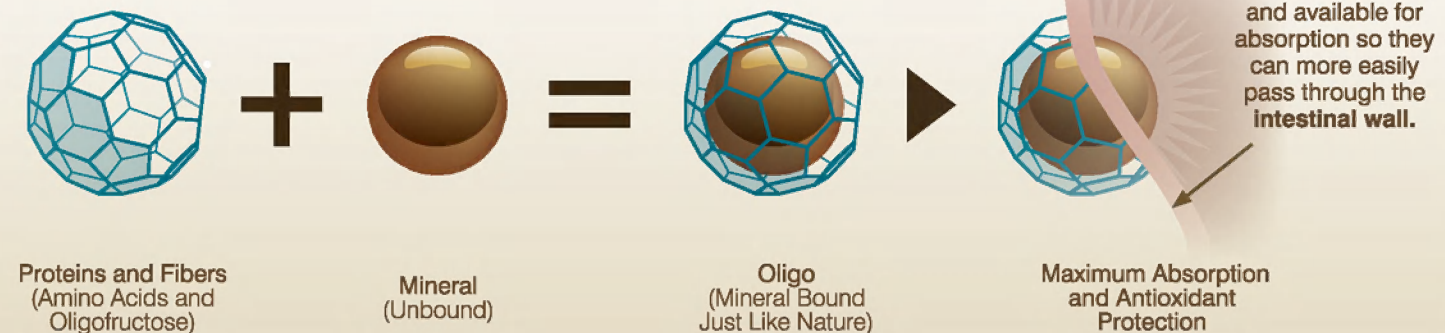

Oligo was created to be Just Like Nature.™ Only Oligo binds minerals to organic compounds (amino acids and oligofructose) to mirror the way they are found in fruits, vegetables, and other whole foods to maximize solubility.

In fact, Oligo minerals are scientifically proven to be up to 10 times more available for absorption than the minerals in the leading brands.

Maximum Antioxidant Protection

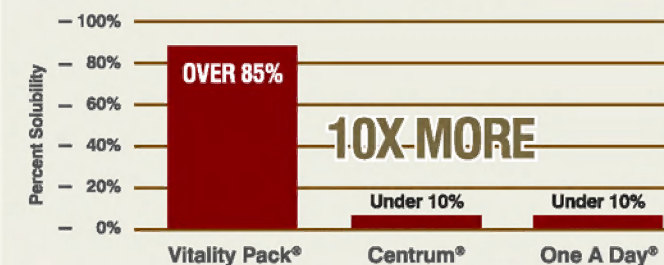

Formulating minerals Just Like Nature has another important benefit. Minerals in traditional supplements can trigger massive free radical activity during digestion. These free radicals can actually cancel out the benefits of antioxidants like vitamins C and E. Oligo minerals are different. Oligo protects these critical antioxidants up to 5 times better than the leading brands.

As a result, your body gets more of the nutrition it needs most for more energy every day and a lifetime of better health.*

Solubility†

Oligo-Bound Minerals
Over 85% soluble in the intestines.
Up to 10 times more soluble than the unbound minerals used in One A Day® and Centrum®.

† When tested against the sulfate, gluconate, oxide, and fumarate forms of copper, iron, manganese, and zinc (the forms commonly used by almost all commercially marketed nutritional supplements) at intestinal conditions.

‡ Solubility of copper, iron, manganese, and zinc at intestinal pH (7.0-7.2). Solubility for Melaleuca's form was determined as percent of ingredient remaining in solution at pH 7.0 after being at pH 1.0 (stomach conditions). Competitors' ingredients solubility data taken from Merck Index and Handbook of Chemistry and Physics.

SHOPPERS SAY “I had been a Centrum user for about 10 years. After two weeks of taking Oligo, I started feeling a difference in my energy, especially around 3:00 or 4:00 in the afternoon. I will always take Oligo because I feel that much of a difference and I feel that much better.”

Pioneering New Research Explains Life Changing “Oligo™ Effect”

At the time of its introduction, Oligo had been tested with established methodologies for nutritional supplements. Those tests proved that Oligo minerals are over 10 times more available for absorption and protect antioxidants 5 times better than the mineral forms found in leading brands. Those results compelled Melaleuca to further test Oligo in ways unprecedented for nutritional supplements.

So Melaleuca teamed with world-leading researchers to:

- 1) Prove nutrient penetration through the intestinal wall
- 2) Measure free radical activity throughout the body

Neither had ever been performed with a complete multivitamin-mineral supplement.

New Study 1:

Putting Mineral Absorption to the Ultimate Test—Human Cells

William Diehl-Jones, PhD

Alex Rabovsky, PhD
Melaleuca Scientist

Melaleuca teamed with Dr. William Diehl-Jones of the University of Manitoba, a respected researcher known for developing the most advanced, lifelike model for studying pharmaceutical and nutritional bioavailability.

Together with Melaleuca senior scientist Dr. Alexander Rabovsky, Dr. Diehl-Jones designed a study that used live human intestinal cells to recreate the mechanism of absorption in the human digestive tract.

For the first time ever, a complete multivitamin-mineral formula was tested for absorption using actual human intestinal cells.

Results: The absorption study clearly demonstrated that Oligo not only delivers a striking level of solubility, but also delivers an unmatched level of absorption through the intestinal wall.

Oligo's Free Radical Protection Ability in Action

For the first time, researchers have been able to use computer imaging low-frequency EPR technology to see free radicals generated within the body caused by taking a multivitamin-mineral supplement. The Oligo supplement clearly demonstrates far less free radical activity within the body.

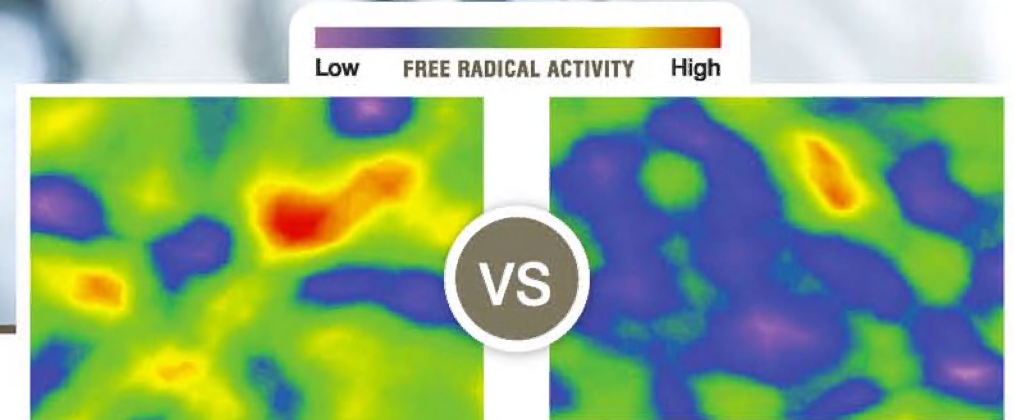

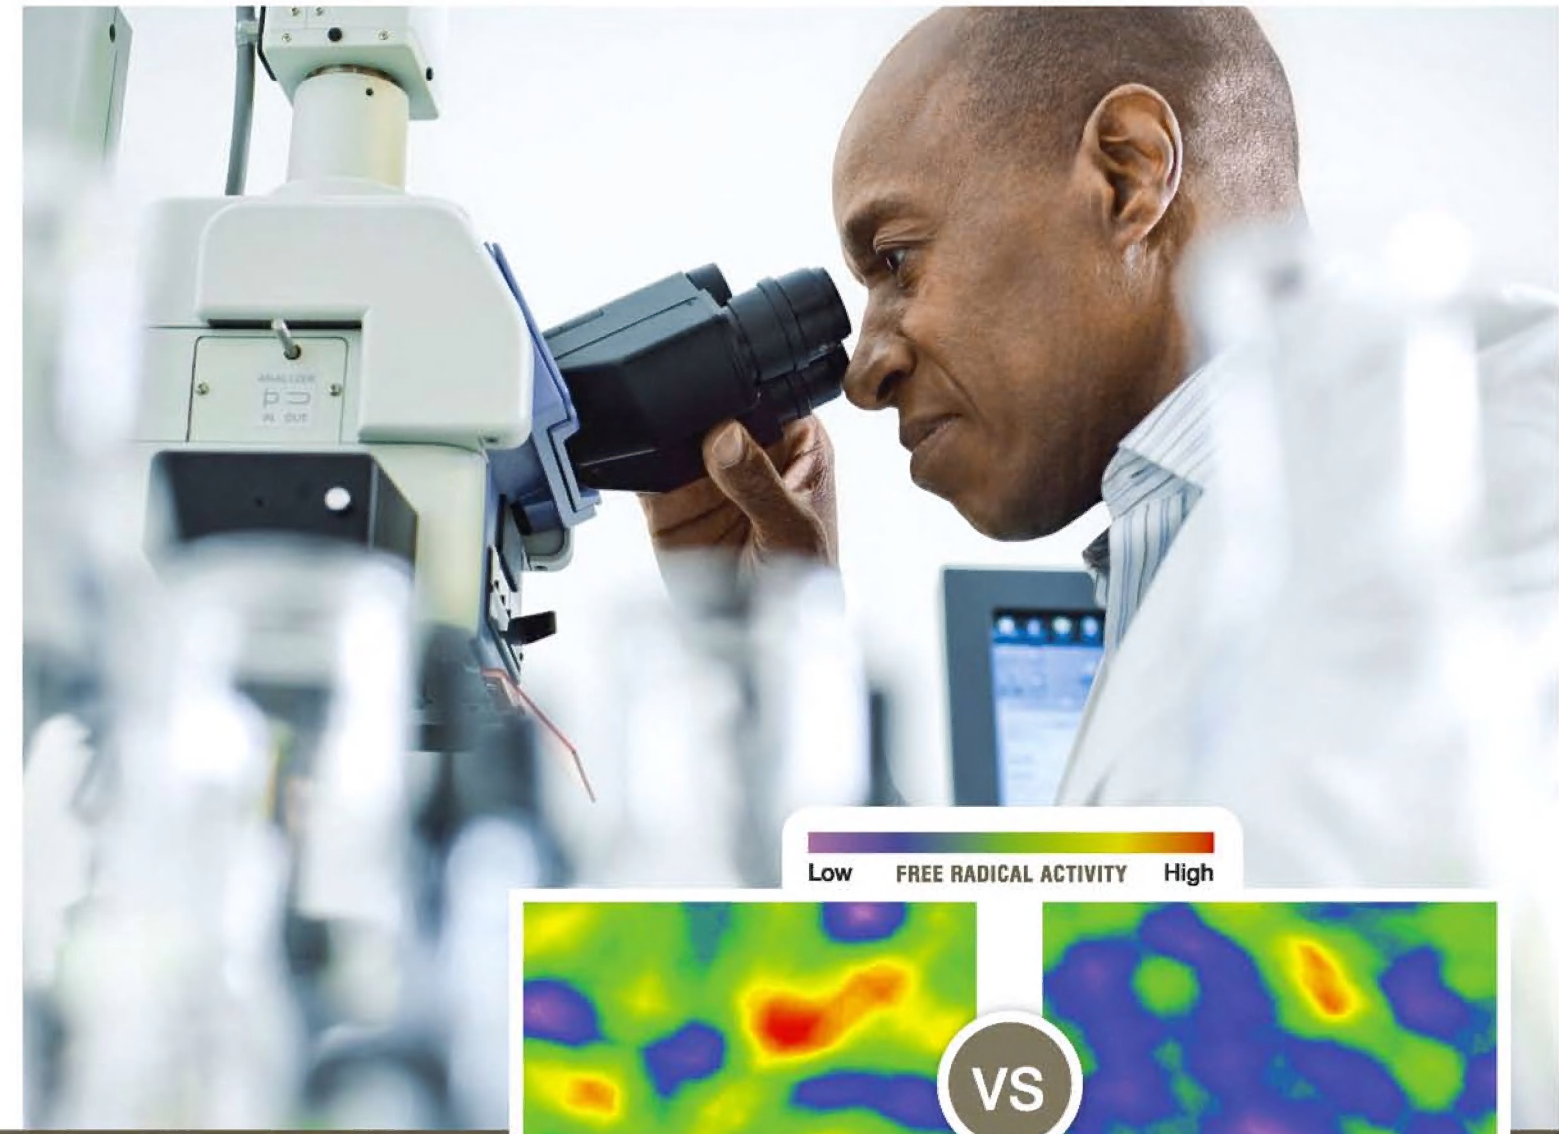

New Study 2:

Oligo's Free Radical Effect In a Live Body

Bruno Fink, MD

Even more profound were the results from the groundbreaking study with Dr. Bruno Fink—a specialist in the measurement of free radical activity in the human body. Dr. Fink is the founder of Noxygen Science Transfer and Diagnostics, a top research institution located in Elzach, Germany.

Free radical activity after taking non-Oligo multivitamin-mineral

PROVEN FACT: After taking a non-Oligo supplement, there is a tremendous spike in free radical activity in the body.

Free radical activity after taking Oligo multivitamin-mineral

PROVEN FACT: After taking the Oligo supplement, free radical activity in the body is significantly minimized.

Results: The Noxygen free radical study proved that Oligo not only protects against dangerous free radical activity in the digestive tract, but extends that protection throughout the entire body—better than any non-Oligo mineral form on the market.

The purpose was to measure—in a live body—the difference in free radical activity after two different vitamin formulations were digested. One contained Oligo minerals. The other: non-Oligo mineral forms used in major brands.

The study produced visual evidence of a dramatic spike in free radical activity in the digestive tract after taking the non-Oligo multivitamin-mineral supplement. The study further proved that these free radicals form in the digestive tract and then dangerously spread throughout the entire body.

More importantly, the study proved that the levels of free radicals generated by vitamin supplements containing Oligo minerals were significantly lower than formulas based on non-Oligo mineral forms.

Omega-3 fatty acids are important to the development of a baby's brain and eyes.[†] Yet most women only get about 14% of the recommended levels of omega-3s to optimally support a baby's development through their diet. Melaleuca's Prenatal Omega-3 is the first and only natural prenatal supplement that includes the recommended source of omega-3s (pure coldwater omega-3 fish oils) in the right balance (DHA:EPA) and at the right dose[†] (1,400 mg) to support baby's brain and eye development.* It is also rigorously tested to be free of mercury, PCBs, and other contaminants.

Natural Solutions for a Woman's Unique Needs

Reducing the risk of osteoporosis has never been so sweet*

Vitality Mineral Complex Calcium Chews combine the same nutrients found in the Vitality Pack with a sugar-free, creamy chew featuring a delicious vanilla caramel flavor.

Like Vitality Calcium Complete tablets, our soft chews contain the optimal amounts of minerals from the best possible sources. In fact, Vitality Mineral Complex Calcium Chews utilize calcium from four different sources, so your body gets timed-release calcium replenishment, plus vitamin D, phosphorus, and magnesium.

* Osteoporosis affects menopausal women and older people. Preventing osteoporosis should start earlier in your life. Regular exercise and a healthy diet with enough calcium help build and maintain good bone health and may reduce the risk of osteoporosis later in life. Adequate calcium is important, but daily intakes above about 2,000 mg are not likely to provide additional benefit.

The natural way to promote urinary tract health*

Besides being a tart treat, cranberries are an effective ally for urinary tract health. Scientific studies show that the phytonutrients in cranberries can help form a protective barrier between your bladder lining and bacteria. This action can help flush bacteria from your system.*

Unlike cranberry juice that is watered down and packed with sugar, CranBarrier gives you 1,000 mg of cranberry extract and only 10 calories. Plus, CranBarrier has a propriety blend of blueberry and uva ursi (bearberry)—for a supplement unlike anything else on the market.

Address bone health and menopausal symptoms naturally*

As a woman ages, bone health and menopausal symptom relief become increasingly important. EstrAval is our 3-in-1 herbal supplement that helps naturally promote women's health. Each EstrAval capsule contains:

- 75 mg of soy to support bone health and reduce the occurrence of hot flashes in menopausal women
- 50 mg of dong quai, which promotes uterine health and helps regulate the menstrual cycle
- 25 mg of black cohosh, which imitates a woman's own estrogen

The Complete Heart Health Picture

1 BOTTLE = 10,000 GRAPES

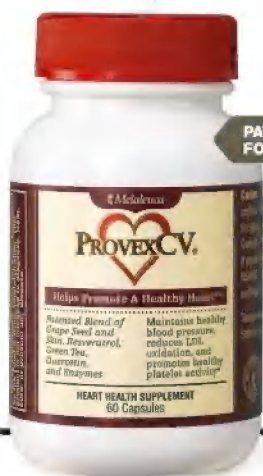

Can antioxidants from grapes really keep me young at heart?

The answer is a resounding "yes." With ProvexCV, we've taken the humble grape and turned it into a supercharged heart protector! We concentrated the flavonoid power of nearly 10,000 grapes into every bottle. ProvexCV also contains four other natural heart-health powerhouses to help support overall cardiovascular health, maintain healthy blood pressure levels, and reduce LDL oxidation by 70% compared to vitamin E.*

ProvexCV delivers the heart health support you need with just two easy-to-swallow capsules.* ProvexCV is also available as part of the Vitality 6 (Essentials + Heart) and Vitality Total (Essentials + Heart + Body) packs (see pages 12-13).

PATENTED FORMULA

LDL OXIDATION
REDUCTION

- 1 LDL OXIDATION
Occurs when LDL cholesterol particles react with free radicals. The resulting particles can produce inflammation in the arteries, which can lead to the formation of plaque.
- 2 PLATELET FUNCTION
Refers to the ease with which blood platelets slide past each other. When they cannot slide easily, clotting can result.
- 3 ENDOTHELIAL FUNCTION
Refers to the endothelium—a thin layer of cells that covers the inner surface of blood vessels and regulates the flow of blood, allowing it to be pumped farther.
- 4 BLOOD PRESSURE
The pressure exerted by circulating blood on the walls of veins and arteries. The greater the pressure, the harder the heart has to work, and the more prone to injury the arteries become.

- 5 TRIGLYCERIDES
A type of fat stored for future energy needs. Elevated levels in the blood can pose a serious health risk.
- 6 CHOLESTEROL
A waxy substance required to maintain healthy cell walls and produce bile acids. If too much accumulates in the bloodstream, it can clog blood vessels.

-29%
LDL CHOLESTEROL

More of the nutrients your heart needs
Nature's answer to high cholesterol. Both omega-3s and plant phytosterols help reduce the risk of heart disease.^{1,2} Together, they can also lower triglyceride levels by 26%¹ and LDL cholesterol by up to 29%.² That's why we created Phytomega. It combines a higher concentration of omega-3s and phytosterols with CoQ10 and alpha lipoic acid to create the ideal heart-health blend. It's nature's answer to cholesterol.

Phytomega is also available as part of the Vitality 6 (Essentials + Heart) and Vitality Total (Essentials + Heart + Body) packs (see pages 12-13).

Gut Reactions

Fiber is essential to removing toxins, fats, cholesterol, and waste from your system. If you don't get enough fiber, that toxic load is recirculated back through your body instead of being eliminated. In essence, fiber is nature's perfect trash collector.

New Calmicid AC keeps your heartburn in control day and night for a refreshingly low price.

It starts as soon as you lie down—or after a spicy meal, or during a stressful day: that burning from chest to throat, as if you swallowed fire.

You need effective relief. And you have it with new Calmicid AC—an H2 inhibitor that helps reduce acid production in your stomach for up to 12 hours. Even after heartburn has started, Calmicid AC works quickly, giving you welcome, restful relief in just minutes. All for a price that won't keep you up at night.

Calmicid® AC 60 tablets
2256 | $14.50 (9.99pc 6pts)

Whether stress, spicy food, or lying down brings it on, with Calmicid AC you have safe, effective insurance against heartburn for a full 10–12 hours. Or, if a flare-up has already started, Calmicid AC douses that heartburn in minutes and keeps it away for hours.

MILLION
SUFFER
HEARTBURN

Are you one of the 20 million North Americans who suffer heartburn regularly? If so, make Calmicid AC your solution to preventing those unwelcome flare-ups.

CALMICID AC HAS THE SECRET TO RELIEVING HEARTBURN: H2 INHIBITORS

Heartburn is caused when acidic stomach fluids reenter your esophagus and contact the sensitive, unprotected lining there.

An H2 inhibitor blocks acid production, helping your stomach fluids become less acidic and less irritating to your esophagus.

Candle of the Month Café Automne Candle Collection

Sweet chocolate and crème pâtissière, fresh-picked berries and flaky crust, and rich café caramel: at the Café Automne, dessert is an art form to be savored slowly. Let the world pass you by for an afternoon; linger on the leaf-strewn cobblestones in a small wicker chair; lose yourself in the delicate, decadent scents of an autumn in Paris.

SEPT: 5609 | BERRY TARTELETTE

A work of art for the palate: plump, juicy berries spiced with clove, nutmeg, and sweet cinnamon sugar, baked inside a buttery, flaky crust. As any Parisian will tell you, there's no need to hurry. Beauty like this must be appreciated.

OCT: 5610 | CHOCOLATE ÉCLAIR

The quintessential Parisian dessert: a light pastry filled with sweet crème pâtissière, topped with rich, dark melted chocolate. Meant to be nibbled, never gulped. Each small bite is a feast for the senses in Paris on a cool fall afternoon.

NOV: 5611 | CAFÉ CARAMEL

Quite simply, a scent that puts the world on hold for a while: dollops of caramel and a kiss of vanilla stirred into fine French coffee laced with milk. Finish your sojourn at the café the right way—by lingering just a little while longer.

The power of thyme

Thyme oil is an essential oil distilled from the herb thyme. This oil contains a naturally antiseptic compound called thymol, an EPA-recognized disinfectant. In Sol-U-Guard Botanical 2x, thyme oil lends both its germ-killing powers and its light, fresh herbal scent.

The power of lemons

Did you know that inside every fresh yellow lemon is a formidable germ killer? That's citric acid—the same substance found in citrus fruits. Citric acid is a powerful, EPA-recognized disinfectant. It's the perfect addition to our botanical disinfectant formula. In fact, the citric acid in Sol-U-Guard Botanical 2x is even food-grade.

* Proven to kill 99.9% of household bacteria and viruses on hard, non-porous surfaces in less than 10 minutes.

All Wrapped Up in Love and Softness

Sometimes it's the little things in life—like that favorite fluffy scarf—that really make you feel good. MelaSoft is your secret to the softest, cuddliest, static-free laundry.

Huggably soft, deliciously fresh!

Some of the best things in life are the simplest...like your favorite fluffy towel to wrap up in, or pulling on a cuddly, soft shirt. Why not add that extra softness and freshness to every load of your laundry?

A friendlier fabric softener

MelaSoft Liquid is made with a biodegradable, plant-derived softener and fragrant essential oils to naturally soften and freshen fabrics.

More than just a fabric softener

You'll love how MelaSoft reduces static cling too—no more pants or skirts clinging to your legs. Just add MelaSoft Liquid to the final rinse cycle of your wash or put a MelaSoft Sheet in the dryer to enjoy laundry that's static-free, snuggle soft, and fresh as a breeze. MelaSoft Sheets are also great for freshening closets, suitcases, diaper pails, shoes, cars, and much more.

Sprayer Included

Wrinkle-free clothes, no iron required

You don't have to live with wrinkled clothes. Revive Wrinkle Relaxer replaces the venerable old iron with just a few sprays and tugs. The drudgery of ironing is gone, and clothes are instantly freshened as well. What's more, Revive reduces static cling. Clothes look better, smell better, drape better, and move better. Just spray lightly with Revive and tug out the wrinkles. It's a must-have in your laundry room, and great to have on the road.
